WE MISS U

THANK YOU

They say that the best movies are based on true stories.
So why not turn your own life into one?

Celebrating all the moments no Hollywood movie can ever capture,
ones featuring the unsung heroes who make life worth living.

Let's face it, too many precious moments end up in scattered bits here and there, hours of footage, and endless photo files of pictures you always promise yourself to organize and print,
but you never do.

From now on, you live the moment, and we will make sure you can re-live it over and over again.

LC stories is a production boutique specialized in turning home movies archives into art house creation, your event into a production movie and your picture archive into a DVD album, while keeping it as bittersweet as life itself.

If you can dream it, we can shoot it. Tell us about your idea and we'll make it happen.
